Mike Phillips If it had been me that he said that to, I would have filed a protective order against him. It sounds like a threat.

Barbara Talcott Isn't that more like satire? I hear the same 'joke' about lawyers and other professions. Maybe he was making a lame joke instead of saying something viscous. I'll ask him tomorrow to explain it.

Its kind of like this one:

"The first thing we do, let's kill all the lawyers" who by? someone famous:

William Shakespeare: Henry VI (Part 2) .....

What's wrong with Lawyer jokes?

Lawyers don't think they're funny, and nobody else thinks they're jokes.

Vincent Ippolito Frank was not in a friendly mood yesterday, his manerism and his deamenour were hostile. I would not tolerate his conduct if he was a paying customer in my store. As a volunteer whoput many hours in to set up booth after a long week of primaries and work...No ! Way !!

Barbara Talcott I talked to him today and asked if he said something as a joke- and he said he never said such a thing- never would- by his face I believed him. He said if he said something that someone misconstrued, he is genuinely upset about it. He came to the booth today several times and he does have his dry humor- but all was well. I would like to know who he said it to so I can talk with them.

Vincent Ippolito Today Frank Lancasater at the Charles County Fair was verbally abusive towards me when I told him he couldn't put his picture on the wall with State/Federal officials.

Upon my denial of his request he sought Virginia Benedict and intimidated her into granting his request.

In the primary I supported Lancaster but his actions today will force me to reconsider his state of mind/tempermant to serve in public office.

Mr. Powell

Today Frank Lancaster (a union endorsed candidate) arrived at Dem. Central committee fair booth at charles county fair and became verbally abusive(even threatening me physically) towards me when I denied his request to post his picture on the wall with state and local officials. Upon my denial of his request he then sought Virginia Benedict and bullied and intimidated her into granting his request.

In the primary I supported Mr. Lancaster as a nominee but his actions today will force me to reconsider his state of mind and temperment to serve in public office..

There were three witnesses to his abusive behavior.

At very least Mr. Lancaster owes me as well as those present an apology and explanation for his actions.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter..
